About the Author

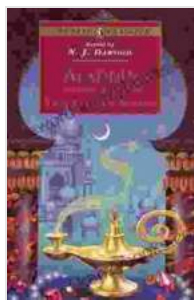

The Arabian Nights is a collection of Middle Eastern folk tales compiled in Arabic during the Islamic Golden Age. The tales were originally told orally, and they were first written down in the 9th century. The stories are set in a variety of locations, including India, Persia, China, and Arabia. They feature a wide range of characters, including kings, queens, merchants, thieves, and jinns.

The Arabian Nights has been translated into many languages and has been adapted into numerous films, television shows, and other works of art. It is one of the most popular and enduring works of literature in the world.
